A NEW EXHIBITION.

Before leaving Nashville for the National Baptist Convention at Washington, D. C., which is now in session Prof. W. G. Hynes, the wide-awake, enterprising, energetic stereopticon scenery promoter, made a unique set of slides consisting of twenty-five views of the National Baptist Publishing Board and departments. These views Prof. Hynes will place upon canvas before the large assembly of delegates now in the National Capital.
It is learned that a special night will be given over in which Prof. Hynes will entertain the delegation for two hours, showing the employees in various departments at work in the publishing house. The views are made from a little book known as the National Baptist Publishing Board and the Camera, the same which was distributed so successfully throughout the United States in the past year. It is further learned that Prof. Hynes will exhibit these pictures at Jamestown and all through the South this coming winter, which will give Nashville and one its big business enterprises a tremendous send off, with plenty of good advertising throughout the United States.
